THEATRE CHANGES HANDS.

Mrs. Emil Marks has sold her interest in the Central Theatre at Lowell to Don McDonald, a practical theatrical man of Los Angeles, and Frank Quinn, who has been employed in the mines here for some time.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership theretofore existing between E. E. Still and W. H. Claiborne of Bisbee, Arizona, under the firm name of Still and Claiborne is this, sixth day of May, 1916, dissolved by mutual consent.

E. E. STILL, W. H. CLAIBORNE, The business will be continued by E. E. Still, who has taken over the interests of W. H. Claiborne, Bisbee, May 6, 1916. 192 (Advertisement.)

CALLED HOME BY ILLNESS.

Mrs. W. E. Washburn left yesterday morning for her former home at Evansport, Indiana, where she was called on account of the serious illness of her brother and sister. She was accompanied as far as Douglas by her husband.

IS INDICTED.

Advice received from Tucson are to the effect that Joseph Griffith, who was arrested in this city several weeks ago on a charge of bringing a woman from Cornwall, England, to this city for immoral purposes, had been indicted for that offense by the United States grand jury and that he had entered a plea of not guilty and the case was set for trial on May 9th.

JURY DISAGREES.

The jury which tried the case of the State of Arizona vs. Jos Reger, in Judge Smith's court on Friday, was unable to agree upon a verdict. Reger was accused of making an assault on Albert Heffern. There were some thirty witnesses examined in the case and of the testimony was rather interesting. It has not as yet been decided whether another trial will be had or not.

CRICKETERS ACTIVE AGAIN.

The Warren District Cricket Club will play a practice match on Warren Park grounds today. The game is called for 1:30 o'clock and all of the playing members are urged to turn out. The committee will hold a meeting at the City Hall at 6 o'clock at which time important business will be considered and a full attendance is desired.

WILL LEAVE FOR EAST.

Rev. J. E. Fry and family leave this week for the East to be gone several weeks. Mr. Fry goes to Atlantic City, N. J., as a commissioner from the Presbytery of Southern Arizona, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which will be in session about ten days. During Mr. Fry's absence the regular service will be held in the Presbyterian Church. The Synodical Missionary, Rev. H. P. Cory, will probably supply the pulpit through the month of June.

ADVERTISING HAD RESULTS.

A few days ago there appeared in these columns a short item that stated a number of the fair employees of the Copper Queen store were wearing diamonds. A young man, not to be outdone by the others, yesterday presented another of the employees with one so that the list was increased. It was reading the item that brought him to mind.

OVER FROM TOMBSTONE.

W. G. Gilmore, a prominent attorney of Tombstone, and former county attorney, was in the city last evening, being called here on legal business.

BIG CROWD OUT.

The opening of the new City Park by the Copper Queen Band concert and dance last night, was a very decided success. There were some hundred couples dancing while the side of the park was lined with people watching the dancers and listening to the music. It is estimated that at one time during the evening there were over a thousand people in the park and about it.

WASN'T IT AWFUL.

A party of Bisbee folks went over to New Mexico a few days ago to visit friends, and upon their return decided to bring a few bottles of beer for their personal use. Before they started they forgot to fill the radiator and after they had gone several miles the engine ran hot and it was discovered that the radiator was dry. There was no water in sight and as they were anxious to return, it was found necessary, in order to cool the engine off, to sacrifice the beer. It took the dozen and a half to do it.

A FREE TREAT FOR ALL.

Everybody in the Warren District is invited to have a free drink of Ironport. Cut out the coupon in the Ironport ad on page seven, second section of this issue and present it at any soft drink establishment or soda fountain and you can either get a glass of Ironport or a bottle, if you want to take it home.
